

LOOKING FOR THAT SPECIAL SPEAKER?

Bob Lynch will tell you that everyone has a story, he has just figured out a way to get food and lodging by sharing his particular life's novel. Bob easily could have done stand up comedy, but chose to be an Unemployment Judge instead. He took an early retirement when the medical community told him he was going to die soon. Even before he was out the front door of the hospital building, he was laughing at what God had just put in his mind to deal with this kind of news. The next 13 years allowed him and his wife Sue, to laugh, cry and share ways to deal with life, death and everything in between. He has spoken at churches and business groups, with newspaper writers, TV reporters, movie producers and directors, cancer patients and small to large bible groups. He has a great talent of making his talk meaningful and fun whether your time frame is ten minutes or an hour. Bob and Sue have learned to plan for tomorrow, but live for today. Based on that philosophy, please contact them today so they can plan for tomorrow. Otherwise, you will be messing with their life plan.
